

Two students from our local Education Contest held in March 2009 won first place at the state level and also won first place at the national level. Miranda Jangula and Eric Assmann each represented Court #330 in the Computer Art portion of the National Education Contest and each was awarded the first place prize. We are proud to have Miranda and Eric as national winners from our court!